On behalf of myself and other individuals participating in NCPTA through this membership application, I hereby understand and acknowledge that paddling has inherent risks and dangers which can be minimized through proper preparation, education, training and experience, but which cannot be totally eliminated. I accordingly hereby acknowledge for myself, my heirs, executors and administrators such inherent risks and dangers and waive any and all rights and claims for damage I may have against NCPTA, its officers and representatives for injuries suffered by me in any NCPTA activities.

I further hereby acknowledge that all participants in NCPTA activities do so as “common adventurers”. The Association or its individual members may coordinate or sponsor paddling trips and other activities, but no one is considered leader of a trip or outing. All participants take the responsibility for making their own decisions including, but not limited to, whether to participate on any particular body of water or section, what equipment they use, the routes they may choose to paddle, whether their skill levels and abilities are appropriate for the activity, or whether climate and water conditions are appropriate for their participation.
